No. 4747
R. F. 87-92

Passing orders on the revision of the Comptroller's office establishment.

SBP—5-1-1901—200

READ—

Correspondence ending with letter No. 3095, dated the 23rd November 1900, from the Comptroller, Mysore Government, in regard to the revision of his office establishment, consequent on the death of his Chief Assistant, Mr. Barrow.

No. 4747—R. F. 87-92, DATED BANGALORE, 15TH DECEMBER 1900.

ORDER THEREON—The deputation of the two marginally named Account Probationers to Madras, after the Christmas Holidays, to undergo training in the office of the Accountant General, is appoved. Arrangements should be made to enable them to draw their pay in Madras should they prefer it. They should also be warned to join the Madras Accountant General's office on a day to be fixed in communication with the Accountant General.

Mr. T. Satyaraj Chetty, B. A.
Mr. L. Bhisto Punt Badami, B. A.

2. The Government consider it desirable that arrangements should be made without further delay for the work of outside-audit, as suggested by the Comptroller, and they therefore resolve to deal with the Comptroller's recommendations, which provide for this being done.

3. The revision of office establishment proposed in the Comptroller's demi-official letter of the 16th July 1900, provided for the following, namely:—

	Increase. Rs.
(a) For increasing the pay of the three Account Probationers from Rs. 150 to Rs. 200 each per mensem.	150
(b) For granting an allowance of Rs. 25 to one Examiner in charge of head-quarters outside-audit.	25
(c) For increasing the pay of the dufterbund from Rs. 6 to 15 ...	9
(d) For employment of the following extra hands:—
8 Junior Accountants at Rs. 20	160
3 Ditto at Rs. 25	75
1st Grade Accountant	92½
Total Increase ...	511½

Against this, the following reductions were proposed, namely:—

(1) Abolition of the appointment of Chief Superintendent, Mr. Vaiyapuri Chetty being made Chief Assistant to the Comptroller.	350
(2) Abolition of two 3rd grade Accountants	82½
(3) Abolition of five probationers at Rs. 15 per month ...	75
Total ...	507½

4. In regard to the Account Probationers, the increase of their pay from Rs. 150 to Rs. 200 will be deferred till they shall have received their training and passed the Higher Departmental Examination prescribed for such men in British India.

5. The other proposals of the Comptroller including (1) the abolition of the appointment of Chief Superintendent, and (2) the change of designation of Mr. Vaiyapuri Chetty to Chief Assistant to the Comptroller, on a salary of Rs. 350 rising by annual increments of Rs. 25 to a maximum of Rs. 450, are approved, except that, to avoid any addition to the total cost, the pay of the dufterbund will be fixed at Rs. 11 (eleven) instead [illegible] at Rs. 15 as proposed.

6. The alterations in the scale of establishment, which entail no additional cost to Government, are sanctioned as per annexed proposition statement, with effect from 1st January 1901.

L. ANANTASAMI RAO,
Offg. Secy. to Govt., Gen. & Rev. Depts.

To L. Ananthasami Rao, Esq., B.A.

General & Revenue Dept.

Sir,

With reference to para 2 of my letter No.3095 of 23rd November 1902 in re deputation of two Account Probationers for training in the Madras Accountant General's office and intimating that Mr.M.N.Krishna Rao will be similiarly deputed on their return from Madras, I have the honor to request that the orders of Government may be obtained to my sending Mr.Krishna Rao to Madras for necessary training on the same terms as the other two Probationers.

The delay in sending Mr.Krishna Rao is due to the fact of his having been in charge of the Local Fund & Excise Branches of my Office and could not be relieved of these duties by the appointment of another Officer to do the work owing to the abolition of the Chief Superintendent's place and to the pressure of work in connection with the Special Test Audit. This pressure has now to a considerable extent been removed as the Special Audit is approaching termination. Mr.Krishna Rao may therefore be sent at once to Madras.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

E R Subrayer
